Woman Killed, Man Probably Fa- tally Stabbed and Policeman Injured in Lawrence

GOVERNOR FOSS WANTS PEACE

A proposition looking toward a settlement of the strike at Lawrence was announced by Gov. Foss last night, in the form of an offer of the governor's services to make a personal effort to adjust the differences, provided the strikers would go back to work for 30 days and the mill owners would allow 56 hours pay for 54 hours' work during that time.

It is expected the mill owners will agree to the proposition. The statement in full is as follows, as given out by Secretary Dudley M. Holman last night:

"Open letter to the mill operatives and the mill owners of Lawrence by Gov. Foss:

"The situation at Lawrence has become so serious that every possible effort should be made by all parties concerned to adjust matters; and I therefore request all workers to go back and resume their places in the mills for a period of 30 days, pending the efforts which I shall make to get all the differences adjusted; and, in view of the fact that no notice was given to the mill operatives of a proposed reduction in wages when the change in hours went into effect on Jan. 1, I request all mill operators to give 56 hours' pay for 54 hours' work during that period without discrimination.

"I believe the differences are such as to be easily adjusted if carefully discussed during the next 30 days, and I promise you my best efforts to bring all questions in dispute to a settlement satisfactory to all parties.

"Eugene N. Foss."

CASE PLACED ON FILE

Not Enough Evidence in Ferguson Case

The case against Hugh Ferguson of the St. James hotel, for an alleged violation of the liquor law, was dropped by the superior court at Lowell yesterday. Despite Attorney Higgins' statement that he was satisfied that there was not sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction and accepted a plea of nolo and placed the case on file, Thomas J. Farlight was called for the defendant.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Louis Lefebvre, a prominent member of the St. Joseph church of Notre Dame de Lourdes parish, was united in marriage this morning to Miss Josephine Martin, the ceremony being performed at 11 o'clock at Notre Dame de Lourdes church by Rev. J. R. Barrette, O. M. I., chaplain of the guard. The attendance in church was quite large, and a beautiful musical program was rendered during the service. The young couple were attended by Mr. Isidore Boudreau and Miss Virginia Lefebvre, best man and bridesmaid respectively.

After the ceremony the party resorted to the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lefebvre, 21 Watson avenue, where a wedding dinner and reception were held.

STORY OF SHOOTING

WOMAN KILLED WHILE ENCOURAGING THE STRIKERS

LAWRENCE, Jan. 30.—With one woman shot dead and a man seriously wounded, and several hundred strikers in hand to hand combat with soldiers in the city streets, Lawrence last night witnessed the fiercest of the Lawrence riots. In its hours this town is not going to be very quiet.

Revolver Gives Signal

The riot that broke out early this morning when a crowd of more than two hundred strikers gathered in the city streets, was started by a revolver shot. The crowd, which was composed of strikers, soldiers, and civilians, gathered in the city streets, and a shot was fired from a revolver, which started the riot.

Standing on the sidewalk, shouting encouragement to the strikers, was an unknown Lithuanian woman, suddenly she threw up her arms and held her revolver high in the air. A shot from a soldier's revolver had pierced her fatally.

Patrolman Owen, suddenly separated from his comrades and surrounded by hundreds of strikers, was vainly trying to regain his place with the other officers. A moment later he lay prone on the ground, and the crowd, which had gathered in the city streets, was shouting and cheering.

EXPECTING TOO MUCH.

"My friends," said the father with a sigh, "I have not done well. This family will certainly be a burden to the kidneys. I don't expect it to come down to me, but the trouble with it is, we expect too much."

"The father," he said half a dozen times, "I don't say he was a great statesman."

"The mother," he said half a dozen times, "I don't say he was a great statesman."

"The children," he said half a dozen times, "I don't say he was a great statesman."

"And that he was for the people?"

"Yes, my friends, he said all that and more, and now that he wants to get back to the White House what's he expecting Mr. Taft to say of him?"

"The same things."

"And is he saying them?"

"No, a damned word!"

"There it is, my friends," said the father, "I have not done well. This family will certainly be a burden to the kidneys. I don't expect it to come down to me, but the trouble with it is, we expect too much."

Just a Short One.

I HAD business to take me up into Vermont a year ago," said the Boston man. "And I was just ready to return when it began snowing and the roads were fence-deep and not a horse could find his way to the railroad. I was at the village inn, and there I had to stay for two weeks. Of course I fretted and fumed, but it did no good and rather astonished the inhabitants. One afternoon, when I was hugging the red-hot stove and using bad English an old fellow came into the parlor and said: 'Stranger, something seems to ail you. What is it?'"

"I am held up here by the cold and snow when I ought to be in Boston," I replied.

"Why, there hasn't above four feet of snow," he replied.

"It's 12 below," I said.

"Shoot! My children have skis on their winter shoes on yet. Don't talk about the cold until you see it 30 below."

"Does it get that cold?"

"It beckoned me out on the veranda and pointed to a cross on one of the posts, with the figures '48' cut below it."

"Well?" I queried.

"That cross marks the greatest depth of snow last winter and the 48 is where the thermometer stood on the coldest day."

"You don't mean that?"

"And we called it a short winter at that!"

"Yes, sir. It didn't begin till October, and it was about all over by the first of May. Very short, sir, very short. This winter began in September, and we are reckoning to do our spring plowing along about the first of July. That's the beauty about our climate—she don't run to dandelions and 'skeeters'."

Yes, Waldo, appeared as a new character. Here I followed a guy who looked like a millionnaire ten blocks to the north but it ain't nuthin' but a 'two-for' after all.

AN EXPLANATION.

Dobbs—I think my furnace must be of exotic origin.

Dobbs—Why?

Dobbs—It seems to like to go out in the coldest weather.

You Can't Beat Them.

CHUCKY took about the real estate market in the East," said the hardware drummer, "but they are in the infant class beside the West."

"How you had experience?" was asked.

"Well, just a little. A fellow in a brown coat got after me to buy four acres of land. The price asked was a thousand dollars. Two new railroads were to be built, a State orphan asylum and several other things were to come within the next year to boost the value of the land. I kept asking him, but he hung right to his price and thinking to squelch him at last I offered him two hundred dollars for the lots."

"And he was squelched?"

"Well, he accepted the offer. He took the money and he hardly breathed a word of it. He had been signed."

"To buy and not a bargain?"

"No, I gave it. Yes, it looked like a tremendous bargain. The fellow had not been signed half an hour when a cyclone blew a hotel from the next county on to my lots. It was a fifty-room hotel, and all ready to receive guests. The register even lay open on the desk."

"Wonderful!"

"So I thought, and I chuckled over the seller of the lots. Offered to sell back to him for twenty thousand."

"And he—"

"And he didn't buy—not at that figure. I had opened a hotel without a license. That meant a fine of five hundred dollars. There was an unlicensed bar in the hotel. That meant a fine of one thousand. There were unlicensed pool tables, a faro layout and four barrels of whisky in the cellar, and the fines would have been enormous."

"Well?"

"Well, the real estate man agreed to keep mum if I would deed the property back to him for nothing and pay him fifty dollars to boot, and I gladly did it and got out of town. An Eastern dealer would have at least offered me a cigar at parting, but this son of the wild and woolly even asked me to give him one!"

"No, indeed, I might like it all right if it was equipped with proper facilities for a good trip."

That Dear Old Legend.

He is a dear old, and plenty old. Came out of his hole one day. The snow lay deep, drift and heap. And the wind was a dill play.

To his delight the sun shone bright. He almost thought 'twas a sign. And he felt a guy that pinks dill play. And granted a merry dance.

With retreating north and back to south. A shadow he saw on the snow. That shadow was his, and full of joy. For the legend old you know.

He gave a nod and under old feet. And into his hole he fled. He'd not the up that when I'd said. 'Till then I would trouble him dead.

HANDICAPPED.

"With you're soaked, fell into the pond again, I suppose. Who pulled you out this time?"

"No-one else. I got out on my own."

"Why didn't you call for help?"

"I tried to but every time I did I got out another drink."

GOVERNOR FOSS WANTS PEACE

A proposition looking toward a settlement of the strike at Lawrence was announced by Gov. Foss last night, in the form of an offer of the governor's services to make a personal effort to adjust the differences, provided the strikers would go back to work for 30 days and the mill owners would allow 56 hours pay for 54 hours' work during that time.

It is expected the mill owners will agree to the proposition. The statement in full is as follows, as given out by Secretary Dudley M. Holman last night:

"Open letter to the mill operatives and the mill owners of Lawrence by Gov. Foss:

"The situation at Lawrence has become so serious that every possible effort should be made by all parties concerned to adjust matters; and I therefore request all workers to go back and resume their places in the mills for a period of 30 days, pending the efforts which I shall make to get all the differences adjusted; and, in view of the fact that no notice was given to the mill operatives of a proposed reduction in wages when the change in hours went into effect on Jan. 1, I request all mill operators to give 56 hours' pay for 54 hours' work during that period without discrimination.

"I believe the differences are such as to be easily adjusted if carefully discussed during the next 30 days, and I promise you my best efforts to bring all questions in dispute to a settlement satisfactory to all parties.

"Eugene N. Foss."

LIBEL SUIT IS FILED

International Paper Co., is Charged With Being a Trust

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—A question as to whether the International Paper Co. is a trust is indirectly presented in a libel suit in which the testimony is now being taken here. Charles States Commissioner Alexander here. The Lewiston (Maine) Journal is said to have referred to the company as a trust in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, and the company's suit for libel brings this statement in issue. As officers of the paper company residing here it was agreed that their depositions should be taken before a commissioner. Alonzo Burbank, president and treasurer of the International Paper Co., testified that the International Paper Co. was formed in 1905 by the purchase of 15 paper mills. He said that the total authorized capital stock was $15,000,000 which to the best of his recollection, was divided into 250,000 shares of preferred stock and 250,000 shares of common stock. An issue of $10,000,000 in bonds was also authorized, he said, at the time of incorporation.

Mr. Burbank testified that he had been treasurer of the Fall Mountain Paper Co. and the Minneapolis Paper Co., both of which were purchased by the International company. He said these companies were paid for by bonds and stocks of the International company, 20 per cent. of the purchase price being in bonds and the remainder in stock. He thought that all of the other companies had been purchased in the same way.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Says Legislature Cannot Vote Money for Lawrence Strikers

BOSTON, Jan. 29.—Attorney General Swift, in reply to an inquiry from the house committee on rules stated today that the legislature could not constitutionally appropriate $20,000 for the relief of the Lawrence strikers as provided for in a resolve introduced last week.

The ruling follows that introduced four years ago after the Chelsea fire. The house committee on rules, and the joint committee on rules of the legislature reported unanimously today against a legislative investigation of the strike.

These reports were without prejudice to the special message sent to the legislature by the governor last week which asks for much broader investigation than that of the dispute between the mill owners and the strikers.

The question of an investigation along the lines suggested by Governor Foss will be considered later.

LEADER ETOR

SAYS THE LAWRENCE STRIKERS HAVE WON ALREADY

LAWRENCE, Jan. 29.—Comments about the conduct of the militia which were received by Leader Etor this morning led to the following statement by him:

"Fellow workers, you know the law is on their side. The law not for you. Soldiers are brought here to protect the mill owners and whether you are starved or closed off the streets is a second consideration. Anyway, Gov. are only youngsters who are here to show off."

"But don't let them scare you. This fight is won. It was lost for the militia."

owners the militia they brought more militia into this city. Remember who has the power has the law. You don't have to arm yourselves with 'lawn mowers.' Just stick together and this strike is won."

Theodore Roosevelt would not decline to take the nomination for president than he would decline to end of a letter to him in the press, one of the editors of the Outlook contained in a letter received from him by Mr. Stokely Carmichael, secretary of New Jersey. The letter contained a visit Mr. Stokely made to his office last week when he had an interview with Col. Roosevelt and suggested that he write a letter of his own written design his position in the press.

This letter from Mr. Albert given out by Mr. Stokely today is prefaced with a statement that Mr. Albert has no authority to speak for Col. Roosevelt but that during the past two years he has had exceptional opportunities to learn Col. Roosevelt's views and the workings of his mind. Mr. Albert further says:

"I am convinced that he does not desire the nomination and will enter no contest for it. But I am equally convinced that if his constituents have still further need of his services as their chief executive he will no longer decline their call than he could decline to enlist in the line of duty."

MISS CONSTANCE JACKSON AT THE MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

The bill at Keith's this week from overture to pictures exceeds any previous offering of the season. In regard to excellence for all of the night's entertainment there is not one that can be called weak. The feature with the "Charlie Brothers" are all that the author has to offer. The picture is a masterpiece of the art of living without means, cooking on the gas globe and trying to get on in an inverted flat-top. The "Charlie Brothers" are all that the author has to offer. THEATRE VOYONS

Today the Theatre Voyons presents a program of pictures and musical numbers that is exceptionally good. "The Stolen Nickel" an Edison story picture is a well acted and pleasing drama. "The Heart of a Rose" gives an insight into everyday politics and shows how even a politician may have a heart. The comedy is a screen and the balance of the program is of interest to everyone. Next Thursday "The Mother" a picture made in Ireland and America telling the story of a Irish boy and his mother and several selections of popular Irish music will give the bill a distinctly Irish flavor. JOHN DREW WILL BE SEEN AT THE OPERA HOUSE NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT IN "A SINGLE MAN."

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

An audience which taxed the capacity of the Merrimack Square theatre cheerfully greeted the members of our Stock company last night when they appeared at their favorite house after an absence of a few weeks. The audience gave them at the opening of their act a warm reception and showed how well their work is appreciated by the many patrons of this popular house.

In the first act were Revell and Weston, Miss Constance Jackson, Mr. Charles Stevens, formerly with the Globe Theatre, Boston, and Miss Jessie Grant, also well known among the local theatre-goers. The play presented is "The Edge of the Whirlpool," a one-act dramatic playlet from the pen of Edward F. Payne, and each part is well rendered. The stage decorations are beautiful and the ensemble of the play is very interesting. At the close of the act last night Miss Jackson was presented two large floral pieces, and the entire company was given many curtain calls.

Another pleasing number on the program this week is the Hildebrandt, a made quartet who can sing. Their repertoire of songs is selected with great care and are among the best numbers of recent productions.

THE BEAUTY CHORUS WITH "MUTT AND JEFF"

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

With the advent of the new musical comedy "Mutt and Jeff" directed from its birth to the run at the Globe Theatre, Boston, which is the attraction, at the Opera House tonight and tomorrow, the public will have an opportunity of seeing Bud Fisher's two famous funny men on the stage. As is widely known, "Mutt and Jeff" are two comic characters created by Bud Fisher, the well known cartoonist. Their faces have adorned the columns of the newspapers throughout the country for years, but this is the first time they have ever been transplanted to the stage. Bud Fisher, the prominent New York manager, is responsible for the metamorphosis and from all accounts he has done exceedingly well by the adventures and mischievous pair. In the first place he has attached to the essential end of the show business by gathering a capable company. Then he has elicited the next important thing by securing a good and durable play. It is a rollicking piece of theatrical property with laughter as the main keynote. The fun starts at the rise of the curtain and is continued until the very last line is spoken.

"Mutt and Jeff" have plenty to do. They are in the line-light throughout. They have many escapades and the way they extricate themselves from all sorts of seemingly hard difficulties keeps the action and interest at exhilarating pitch. The comedy is in three scenes, the music is of the kind that can be whistled, and played while the other features are out of the usual run. There is a plot and there is continuity to the story. The whole entertainment was conceived for handling purposes with successful results. To those who like to be amused the comedy should make a direct appeal. And to those who like to see characters who can really do something outside without posing and looking pretty, the production is cheerfully recommended.

There will be a matinee tomorrow.

"THE COWBOY AND THE THIEF"

For Saturday afternoon and evening the attraction at the Opera House will be the breezy western comedy drama by J. Wendell Davis, entitled "The Cowboy and the Thief." The scenes of the

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

"Professional Try-Out Day" will evidently be as popular at the Academy as Amateur Day, judging by the advance sale of tickets. This afternoon and evening several attractions have been added to the already large bill, one of which is a series of securing engagements on the circuit. In the case of the Bunting Bros, however, (Walter Muzzey, Ted Pearson and Charles Barton) it will be the only opportunity to see them on a professional stage. They claim they are not desirous of leaving the business world to travel, and even refused a week's engagement at the Academy. The other act is Horton & Carpenter, both of whom were in the Brown-Horton Stock company and have been rehearsing the act since Miss Horton is a sister of Marie Horton, and she is of the opinion that all the family ability to amuse is not confined to Marie. However, that is for you to judge. The prices will remain the same as usual both afternoon and evening.

BIG POOL MATCH

Wednesday evening of this week, the pool fans will have a chance to see two of the strongest men in the city give an exhibition game of pool at Johnston's pool parlors, 193-195 French street. It will be a pool game between Campbell and Redner. After this week, the management intends to have an open night every Tuesday evening.

Campbell is open to play the best men of the city and all the pool fans are welcome to come and try. Consult with him. All particulars can be obtained by calling at Johnston's.

Among the early bookings for the Opera House are "The Fortune Teller," "Minnie Nazimova," "Seven Days," and "Baby Mine."

JOHN DREW.

John Drew will be seen at the Opera House next Friday night in "A Single Man" by Hubert Henry Davies, a delightful new comedy which has a corner-stone, Ruby's comedy. The fact in the comedy does not belong to Mr. Drew. The baby belongs to Mr. Drew's sister-in-law in the play and she puts it in the study of the "Single Man" who is an author. As usual, Mr. Davies has devised one captivating scene that always touches the hearts of the spectators to a very genuine degree. Then, too, there is the usual, but really, a scene for which all his plays are noted, notably "Cousin Kate" and "The Mollusc."

"The Single Man" is Robin Worthington. What with the influence of sister-in-law's happiness with their baby, he determines that matrimony is just what he wants. The sister-in-law, notably "Cousin Kate" and "The Mollusc."

Health and Beauty Answers

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN

W. S. S.: Your hair will never grow long, thick and lustrous while you use soap. Soap is too strong for the delicate hair, causing them to become dull, brittle and fall out. If you will wash the hair about twice a week with a reasonable amount of cantharox dissolved in a cup of hot water, rinsing thoroughly afterwards, you will find your hair softer, finer and more brilliant than ever before. The hair dries quickly and evenly without streaking or dullness. Cantharox cleanses perfectly, removing all dirt and oil, and relieves scalp-itching instantly.

Mrs. Juliet: No wonder the other young people avoid you when you have your face smeared with paint and powder to cover up your freckles and other complexion defects. If you will use this lotion you will find proper relief and nobody can tell but that your complexion is perfectly natural. Dissolve 1 ounce of cantharox in 12 pints of water (not hot water), then add 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. Apply to the face, neck and arms, rubbing gently. It is a very effective remedy for freckles, sunburn, and other complexion defects. It is the best skin-whitener and complexion-beautifier I ever used.

Della C.: The longer you put off fat-reduction, the harder and more the tissues will become and the less easily dissolved. The most effective, harmless remedy known is secured by dissolving 1 ounce of cantharox in 12 pints of water. By taking a tablespoonful before each meal, you will soon note a most satisfactory disappearance of your fat without any injury to your health. No dieting or violent exercises are necessary with this wonderful remedy. It leaves the skin smooth and unmarred.

Ada: You are right. Long lashes and heavy eyebrows add materially to beauty. With the thumb and forefinger apply a little pyroxin to last roots and they will grow long and curly. To make eyebrows thicker, apply pyroxin with finger-tips. You will find pyroxin harmless, but don't get any where no hair is wanted. Even if druggists charge a dollar for it, it is worth many times its cost. It is a ready-made bill, one of which is a series of securing engagements on the circuit. In the case of the Bunting Bros, however, (Walter Muzzey, Ted Pearson and Charles Barton) it will be the only opportunity to see them on a professional stage. They claim they are not desirous of leaving the business world to travel, and even refused a week's engagement at the Academy. Mrs. G. C.: Hair specialists agree that a special hair tonic is far superior to any other kind for removing dandruff, stopping falling hair and promoting a healthy growth of hair. However, the tonic will be worthless if not used properly. You can prepare a splendid hair tonic by mixing together 1/2 pint alcohol and one ounce quinine, then adding 1 pint cold water. This is unexcelled for removing dandruff and hair troubles and the only satisfactory hair-grower I have ever found.

Don't: If you want a complexion that will not grow bad or make the skin shiny and oily, get an ounce of ZEMO. It is a powerful skin tonic and it will give you a clear, healthy complexion.

Mrs. T. C.: No one can afford to neglect his or her eyes. If you want bright, clear, beautiful eyes that will be much admired, you can have them with very little care. Get an ounce of ZEMO and add it to your eye water. It will strengthen your weak, tired eyes and make them strong, healthy and healthy complexion.

Now for breakfast: Some fruit, fresh or stewed; a saucer of Grape-Nuts with cream; a slice or two of crisp toast, thinly buttered; and a cup of hot Postum. No more.

That will carry you until lunch time, when the same articles can be used, and add a little hot, clear soup.

MORE TROOPS CALLED

Gov. Foss Orders 14 Companies to Proceed to Lawrence

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—Gov. Foss spent most of yesterday afternoon in conference with Mr. Gen. Pearson, Sec. Holman and Mayor Scammon of Lawrence, discussing the Lawrence situation. General Pearson had been in Lawrence during the day and arrived at his office at the state house at 3:30 p. m. He immediately went to the executive department, where he was joined by the governor and after a short conference, the governor was advised.

When the adjutant-general came out and Mayor Scammon went into the governor's private office, the adjutant-general informed the governor of the military detail of twelve companies of infantry and two troops of cavalry had been arranged for and ordered upon the 31st inst. to go to Lawrence to take up the situation.

The governor declined to comment on the situation and referred all inquiries to a statement issued by his secretary. The last paragraph of the statement declared:

"The governor intends that there shall be ample protection to life and property in the city of Lawrence. It is expected that part of the troops will be on the ground during the evening and that all will have arrived by midnight."

Mayor Scammon looked extremely disturbed in mind. While waiting to see the governor some one suggested that it might be a good plan to ship Lawrence, Mass., and Hayward out of town with the intention that they leave the state. "Yes, it might be a good plan," said the mayor, "but how can it be done? You can't arrest a man or railroad him out of town unless he is guilty of some offense."

"I think that with the additional troops that are going to have Lawrence, we shall have the situation well in hand and that the troops assigned to Lawrence will be sufficient to preserve order. I have not asked the governor or anybody else to declare martial law and we did not discuss that question."

This afternoon, I expect very much that the situation is still critical. I have no new suggestion to make as to the best way to settle the difference between the mill men and their employees."

More Men for Duty at Once

The statement given out at the governor's office last evening was as follows:

"At the request of Mayor Scammon and the city council of Lawrence, who came to see the governor this afternoon in regard to the strike situation in Lawrence, the governor, after consultation with the adjutant-general, has ordered 12 companies of infantry and two troops of cavalry to proceed at once to Lawrence."

The governor has also requested of Chairman De Las Caspe a detail of 50 officers from the Metropolitan Park force, which will leave this evening for Lawrence to aid in patrolling in the outskirts of the city.

Lieut.-Col. Charles E. Bopes will be in command of Cos. A, B, C and D of the 24th Corps Cavalry, stationed at St. Paul. The 5th regiment will be in command of Cos. B of Charleston, C of Newton, D of Charlestown, and E of Waltham; Maj. Canfield will be in command of Cos. K and M of the 5th regiment from Somerville, and Maj. Sweetser in command of Cos. A of the 6th from Woburn and H of the 6th from Stoneham; Maj. Schmitt will be in command of Troops A and B Cavalry from Boston."

CARDINAL O'CONNELL

Will Arrive at Boston Shortly After Midnight

BOSTON, Jan. 29.—The steamer Canopic, upon which Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, is returning from Rome, was sufficiently near port at noon today to warrant the announcement that the elaborate welcome prepared for the coming of Boston's first prince of the church would be carried through tomorrow forenoon. Many wireless messages, a number of which extended congratulations and welcome home, were exchanged with the incoming liner and a hotel plan of tomorrow's courtesies was sent out and received the official sanction of the cardinal. The Canopic is expected off Boston light shortly after midnight and will reach quarantine a couple of hours before dawn.

After the Canopic has been visited by the health officers of the government and the city the cardinal will be welcomed by Bishop Anderson, but he will remain on the steamer until she docks at Charlestown. He will then board the city steamer Monitor and be brought to Long wharf, from which place he will be escorted through the city to his home on Granby street.

Notwithstanding the two days' delay there will be no postponement of the festivities in connection with the return of the cardinal. The pontifical mass of thanksgiving will be celebrated on Thursday morning as originally planned followed on Monday by the lunch by the clergy and on Wednesday by the banquet by the laity.

ARE GOING SOUTH

Veteran Ball Players Getting in Ahead of "Kids"

The baseball season is a little way ahead but many of the older players are at present making plans to go to the south and get the kids out of their heads. Among the first to visit the south will be the veteran players of the Boston Nationals. They will go to the south before the rest of the team as they want to be in the best possible condition. He says that he is feeling fine and that he expects a very successful season. Other players will go later, as they realize that many kids are to make their debut this year and the vets are not going to let the younger generation out in front of them if hard work and careful training will prevent it.

Manager Davis of Cleveland will have his hardest job in filling third base on the Naps this year.

Pitcher Gregg of the Naps, says the only hitting weakness which the Naps has is the hitting at a ball pitched a bit wild.

The Boston Pilgrims will wear spikes about one-half the length of the average when they take the field in the spring.

The longest list of exhibition games for the spring trip has just been announced by the Giants, who will engage in twenty-five contests.

Max Carey, who it is said will take the place of Manager Fred Clarke of the Pittsburgh outfield next season, was the first to make a player to sign a contract. He must have got all he was looking for and maybe more.

Now that Ty Cobb has declared that stage life is a bad thing for baseball players, what is the poor baseball player to do when it comes winter? The manager of the Boston Nationals, who is a baseball player, looks as if membership in the Stovepipe League was all that was left.

Ed Gainer, the first baseman of the Detroit Tigers, who had his arm broken by a pitched ball last season, paid a visit to Bostoner Peter Rose the other day, and the latter told Gainer that his arm was as strong as ever. This ought to be cheering news to Higher Jennings.

Harry M. Gowdy, sent his signed contract in from Columbus, O. Manager Kling intends to make a catcher out of Gowdy, that being the position he played when he first gained any prominence in the national pastime.

Joseph W. Burns, for the past twenty years a familiar figure in baseball, minor and major, may succeed Stephen D. Flanagan as part owner of the Brockton team of the New England League. There is a possibility that the deal will be put through next week.

James McAlister of the Boston Red Sox says: "I don't intend to have major league players in our lineup and only pay them minor league salaries. If we sign up a player, we will give him what he is worth and not a cent more or less. If a ball player is fast enough for major league company, we will give him a major league salary, but if he hasn't got the goods, he will stay in the minors without delay."

I don't believe that we will experience any difficulty in signing up O'Brien. He is a very promising youngster and is clearly demonstrated the better part of last season. I believe that the Brockton boys will be the sensation of the American League this season. He has everything which goes to make a winner. And he doesn't cost John L. Taylor $22,500 either.

"Henderson is a wonder. I have heard heard some wonderful tales about this youngster. I saw him in action in a couple of games last season and I am impressed with him as being the real thing. Henderson is one of the fastest men in the big leagues in getting down to first base. Ty Cobb hasn't anything on him in covering the distance between the home plate and the initial sack. He is sure to beat out many infield hits. Henderson will probably act as utility outfielder.

Battery pits of world's championship days will be reunited under Boston colors when the National League campaign starts next April. If Johnny Kling can drive the bargain he today offered C. Webb Murphy.

Kling, always a keen admirer of Reulbach as a man, and as a slacker, wants the latter for the job of pitching coach, and to get in his point the ex-Cub would offer in exchange Tyler, who went to Boston from the Lowell team.

GOOD PROGRAM

At This Week's Meeting of Lowell Social Club

At the meeting of the Lowell Social and Athletic club in Mathew hall, Friday evening, the main bout will introduce Arthur Pelky of North Adams and Bill McKinnon of Boston. This will undoubtedly be one of the best matches ever put on at the local club. McKinnon is one of the best middleweights in the business at the present time. He has defeated some of the best men in the country in his class. His bouts with Jimmy Gardner at the Boston A. A. will be recalled by local sports as great exhibitions of the manly art. Pelky, while not as well known as McKinnon, is said by those who are familiar with him, to be a clever man and one capable of giving McKinnon a great battle. His recent victory over Chas. Haskins of this city makes him look good to the Lowell followers of the game. In the semi-final, Charlie Anastos, one of Lowell's most promising performers will clash with Young McGovern of South Boston, also a good man in his class. The preliminary will be furnished by Young Walsh of Lowell and Young Kearns of Centerville. These boys are also very proficient in the art of self defense and their match ought to be a good one.

DRANK POISON

GIRL ATTEMPTED TO END HER LIFE

WALTHAM, Jan. 29.—Lilla Harwood, aged 16, attempted to end her life yesterday afternoon at her home, 2 Lawton place, by drinking a quantity of disinfectant. Promptness on the part of a physician who was called probably saved her life. The girl has given her mother trouble for some time, as she insisted upon attending a local moving picture theatre, much to the annoyance of her parent. Yesterday afternoon the mother went to the theatre and took Lilla home. It was after reaching home that she made the attempt on her life. She was reported out of danger last night. The girl has run away from home, the police allege, and they say they have had several complaints about her.

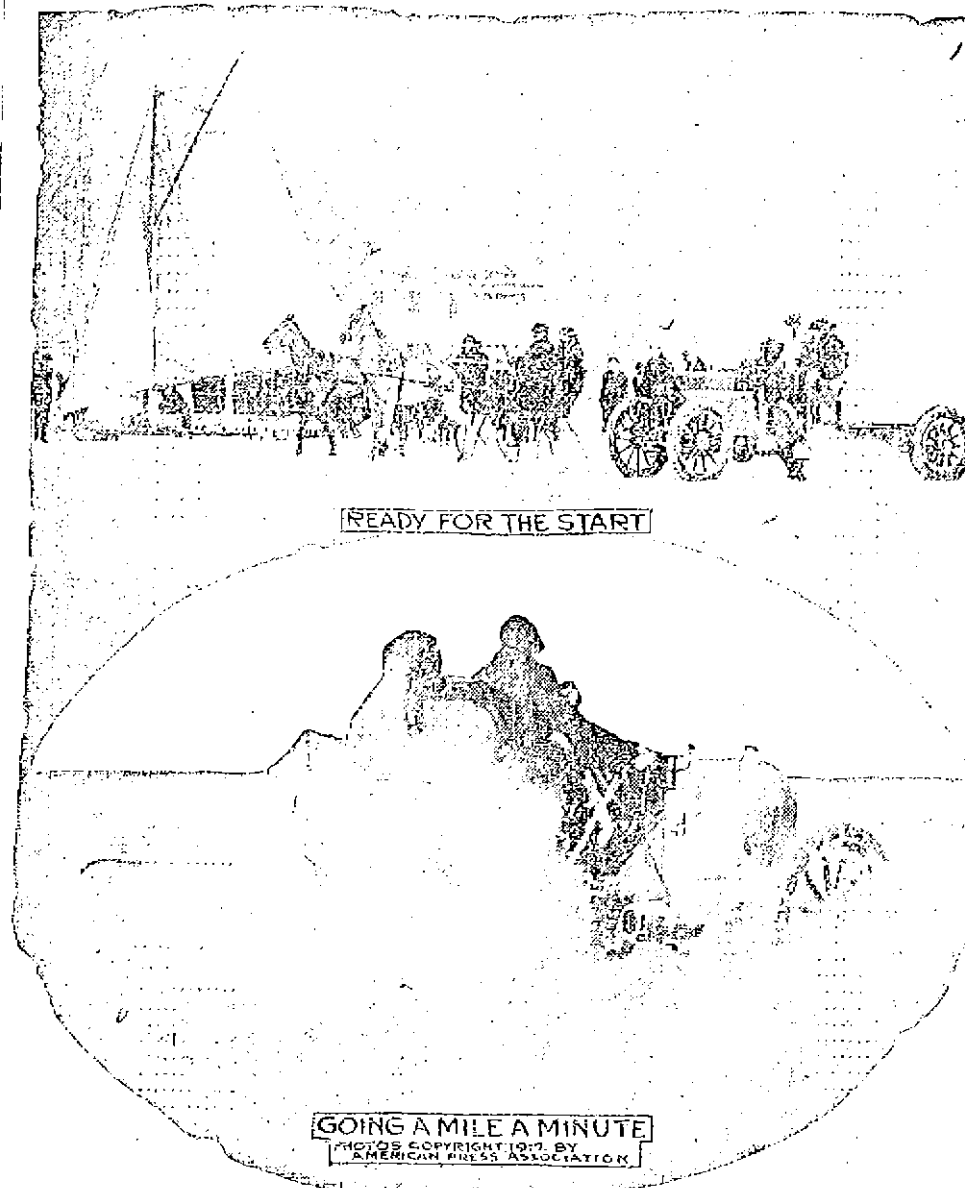

BILLY LINDSAY

MOTHER HELD TO BE UNFIT GUARDIAN FOR HER YOUNG SON

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—The courts of which his mother is a member. His this city and Philadelphia are trying to decide on the fate of Billy Lindsay, the twelve-year-old son of Mrs. Lindsay. The money is held by a trust company in Philadelphia, and an in-the-twelve-year-old son of Mrs. Lindsay. Judge Fickens has been restrained by the fact that the mother is not a fit person to be the guardian of the boy, who was recently found by police in New York. Lindsay is a son of a well-known family in this city of golf and tennis to Chicago.

TROTTER, PAUER, ICE YACHT AND AUTO HAVE TRIAL OF SPEED ON THE ICE

GOING A MILE A MINUTE

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Fred Walton's pacer Brownie and E. Gould's trotter Unknown. Fred Koenig drove the auto. He had trouble with his engine and finished last. Before this unique race Koenig won a fifty mile race against two competitors. The course was on the ice from Tarrytown to Irvington, six miles, making twelve miles to the lap. Koenig averaged sixty-five miles an hour. During the race the drivers were enveloped in a maze of snow. They had to halt several times to wipe their goggles of the crust of sleet and also to free parts of the mechanism of the cars. When the cars, covered with ice, pulled up Koenig's hands were found almost frozen to the steering gear. The crowds gathered along the river kept warm during the race by making huge bonfires of old railroad ties piled along the bank.

BOUT CALLED OFF

Small-Sized Riot at New Haven Club

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 29.—The main bout at the Franklin A. C. here last night, which was to see Frankie Burns of Jersey City and Al Belmont of Boston in action, was called off after two preliminary rounds had been boxed. The Franklin club found itself in an embarrassing predicament. It lost $500 on the proposed battle, and forfeited $1200 to Belmont and Burns. Burns was guaranteed $700 and Belmont $400 if they boxed. It was the first show here under the new "brawl" rules recently made by the Club of Police Councils.

There were 1200 spectators present at the small-sized riot followed when it was announced that the star bout would not be boxed. Burns jumped into the ring, after meeting through the crowd, to show that he had lived up to his agreement. Belmont also shouldered his way through the hustling and yelling mob and climbed into the ring.

An explanation of the real state of affairs was made to the crowd and for a time serious trouble was feared. A squad of 15 police officers quelled the riot, but it took some time to drive the crowd into the street. Tommy Shea of New Haven defeated Johnny Mancini of Boston on points in a 16-round bout at 115 pounds. Mancini was knocked out in the third round. Mark Connolly of Charles town, Mass., defeated Jimmy Ford of New Haven on points in a 22-round bout at 125 pounds. Connolly outpointed his rival all the way.

WALKER PUTS FLANAGAN AWAY NEW BEDFORD, Jan. 29.—Harold Walker of England knocked out Tommy Flanagan of Boston in the fourth round of the feature contest at the Tremont Athletic club here last evening. Flanagan had much the best of the first round, but weakened before the first pugilist of the English pugilist. In the fourth round Walker caught Flanagan's head left to the jaw, and crashing the right to the stomach ended the bout.

MILLER BESTS SYLVIA NEW BEDFORD, Jan. 29.—Young Miller of Pawtucket is a crime in the pugilistic operations of "Barthine" Sylvie. Called by local enthusiasts as a coming champion in his class, by winning the decision after 12 rounds of furious fighting. Miller forced the pace from the start and had his opponent crouching in the fourth round. Sylvia's strength alone enabled him to survive the crisis. Miller used his left jab cleverly and Robert Flanagan's chest was battered with approval by the thousand fans who took in the scrap. Young Schubert knocked out Young Rego in the fifth round, while Young Labadie of the North End won from Young Daley of Pawtucket in the eighth round of a grueling contest.

BROWN MEETS KLAUS PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—"Knockout" Brown of Chicago and Frank Klaus of East Pittsburgh boxed six very unsatisfactory rounds here last night. Throughout the contest Brown stalled so placidly that the crowd hissed continuously. Only two or three times did the Greek lead, and then only in a way that would lead to an opening through which he would dodge and cover up.

In vain did Klaus try to make his adversary stand up and do battle. Evidently Brown had decided to get some money. Klaus' favorite method of doing battle is to play for his man's body. Brown knew this, and whenever Frank would evince an inclination to start something Brown would run to cover, his head down and both gloves protecting his face. Once inside he would grab his opponent's arms and lock them up tight, making very few efforts to do any "inside work."

It was Klaus' bout, if a bout it can be called. CLASSY ALL THE WAY MELBOURNE, Australia, Jan. 29.—Jimmy Gibbs, the American pugilist and Australian middleweight champion, defeated Jack Howard, a middleweight boxer of New South Wales, yesterday, in the seventh round. The contest was one-sided throughout.

TO BLACKWELLS

DANCE HALL KEEPER ALLOWED THE TURKEY TROT

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Walter S. Sweeney, keeper of a resort in 21st street, went to the post yesterday by way of the "Turkey Trot." He was convicted of running a dance hall without a license and sentenced to six months on Blackwell's Island.

Witnesses for the defense were in court ready to testify to the harmless nature of the dance, and an instructor, who said he taught the last word in dancing to "swish," volunteered with a woman partner to exhibit in the court the "Turkey Trot" and the "Grizzly Bear." The justice declined the offer, however, disapproved the dances as indecent and passed sentence on Mr. Sweeney.

PARIS, Jan. 30.—Marquis Carlo Di Salaparuta of Rome, Naples and Paris, here he is among the best known of dilettanti, came into $10,000,000 yesterday by the death of his father-in-law, Henry Labouchere. Ducloux is a son of Italy's former prime minister, visited New York and New York several times, and was said to be engaged to an actress named Miss Desborough. While stopping at the Rue d'Orléans hotel his thoughts suddenly changed and he married the only daughter and heiress of Labouchere, "Laby," was one of England's great radicals and next to Gladstone, her most conspicuous commiserator. He was aware that his only daughter should be an Italian nobleman, but he bowed head before the course of true love left his daughter his vast wealth. In addition, of course, goes to her husband according to Italian usage and law. In addition there is the beautiful Villa Cristina at Florence.

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health. Many cases of years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.
